Mahatma Phule Jayanti

Brief Report of the Activity:

Mahatma Jyotirao Phule: This eminent social reformer and thinker of the 19th century is believed to have launched the first school for girls from the lower strata of society. He also pioneered the anti-caste movement and promoted education for women. Born on April 11, 1827 in Pune, Maharashtra, Jyotirao Govindrao Phule was born in a family that belonged to the lower rung of the social ladder. The men of the Phule family served as florists and were even commissioned by then ruler Peshwa Bajji Rao II due to which the family adopted the surname Phule. Jyotirao's father, Govindrao, was a farmer and flower-vendor in Poona and his mother Chimnabai passed away when he was young. At our institute we had celebrate the birth anniversary by memorizing his solo devotion, by lamp lightning and idol worship.
